

BELVEDERE CLUB 2019 ARCHITECTURAL INVENTORY

Site: 513 Historic Name N/A
Year Built c. 1900
Architectural Style Shingle style

The front gambrel roof with clipped gables at the front and rear of the house and full width front porch with shallow pitched roof supported by Doric columns, along with the multi-pane windows are indicative of the Shingle style. The first floor has narrow clapboard siding, the upper floor likely had wood shingles but has been replaced with wide artificial shingle siding.
